

Cincinnati Association of Black University and College Alumni (CABUCA)
www.cabuca.org

Historically Black College Fair

presented by:

CABUCA and Tryed Stone New Beginning Church
Saturday, September 26, 2015
12 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Tryed Stone New Beginning Church
5550 Reading Rd., Cincinnati, Ohio 45237

College Fair Activities:

- HBCU Information Booths
- Scholarship award/Essay contest information

Recently Participating Historically Black Colleges and Universities:

CABUCA History:

CABUCA was established in the early 1980s with a mission to promote student attendance at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). This 501c3 non-profit organization has a long established history in the greater Cincinnati area working to inform, educate, advocate and connect the local community to the unique advantages of HBCUs. Today, CABUCA represents over 20 colleges and universities through the active membership of alumni chapters.

CABUCA's Major Programs:

- Annual Black College Fair
- College Access Workshops
- CABUCA Scholarship Awards
- Participation in Greater Cincinnati High School College Fairs

For more information, please contact either:

Charles Daniels (CABUCA President) at cad1228@aol.com or Rev. Irv Moore (Black College Fair Chairperson) at revirv@fuse.net.